Assessment Guidelines

In this assessment, you will be developing an overview of the importance of culturally, linguistically, and individually responsive planning practices. You will also provide an overview of the relationship between standards, evidence-based practices, and culturally competent teaching and curricular planning. In Part 2 of your assessment you will plan an appropriate learning experience.

Part I: Pre-Planning Reflection:

Prior to planning lesson, it is important to consider your goals for development and state and national standards that will inform your planning. Consider each of Develop a 1-2-page reflection that responds to:

- The overall strategies goals, objectives, and outcomes of the program you are developing your activity and environment within
- An overview of how observation and assessment data are used in planning.
- A description of how effective curricula supports children’s development and learning.
- An overview of the relationship between standards, evidence-based practice, and culturally competent teaching and curricular planning

Part II: Lesson Plan Development:

You will be required to develop an instructional lesson plan on an approved content topic for the age group you are working with. Your lesson plan must include:

A. Overview

- How will you ensure that activities support the unique development and learning needs of each child?
- What knowledge do you have about the children’s unique developmental patterns, including cultural, linguistic and ability diversity

B. Plan Development

Develop an activity based on the following:

- An outline of all materials and preparation needed to carry out the described activities with attention to the following:
  - Ensuring resources are non-biased and supportive of multisensory needs
  - Planned experiences reflect children’s interests and abilities, allow for child choice, and incorporate child and family involvement in planning.
  - Planned experiences reflect connections to children’s home lives and the broader community.
