Assessment Guidelines

In this assessment, you will have an opportunity to explore foundational requirements for SAY professionals. You will also conduct a reflective assessment of your current strengths and opportunities for development, then developing goals based on your assessment. Reflection and goal development are critical components of your ongoing journey as a professional.

This assessment has four parts. In Part 1, you will provide an overview of essential knowledge for SAY practitioners. In Part 2, you will provide an overview of your professional strengths and opportunities for development. In Part 3, you will identify goals and action steps needed to attain those goals. Part 4 requires that you identify strategies that will support your goal attainment.

Part One: Foundational SAY Knowledge

Professionals in school age and youth are required to shape practice based on guidelines and standards that exist in the field. As an introduction to your Assessment, and as a strategy to review foundational knowledge, please respond to each of the following:

- Provide an overview of the rights of individuals with disabilities relative to the federal, state, and local level.
- Describe the key components of each of the following:
  - o Relevant codes of ethics
  - o Legal, ethical, and moral responsibilities of the SAY professional

- o Relevant ADA guidelines
- Legal requirements and programming standards and how these can effectively be communicated to the public.
- The influence of policies such as zero-tolerance on SAY and their families.

Part Two: Overview of Professional Strengths and Opportunities for Development

For each of the areas included in the chart below, indicate your current strengths and areas for additional development. At the bottom of the chart, provide commentary outlining the rationale for your suggestions.

Part Three: Goal Development and Action Steps

In this portion of your assessment, you will identify professional goals that will support your continued development as a SAY professional. Respond to each of the following regarding your present level of development.

Goal Development

- Effectiveness in utilizing established or self-created process for developing outcomes and goals that guide development as a professional practitioner.
- Participation and partnering competencies with colleagues, families, and community members in support of helping SAY develop assets.
- Level of engagement in formal program review processes that are aligned with state and national standards.
- Current alignment of professional practice based on self and professional evaluations, accreditation processes, and work standards and practices.
- Participation in local, state, and national training/resources that support individual and program development.
- Experience and knowledge of research and policy from diverse cultural practices, effective practices, philosophies, models, and theories in school-age and youth development work.
- Current level of leadership for the development, oversight, and maintenance of rights for families, school-age, youth, based on evidence-based standards of practice.
- Effectiveness of applying information gained about school-age, youth, families, and colleagues to enrich relationships and support growth.

Based on responses provided above, outline five specific action steps you can engage in to gain additional knowledge of SAY programming, the community served, and relevant institutional standards.

- 2.

- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Part 4: Professional Development Plan

Provide an outline of how you will support your ongoing professional development through each of the following:

- Participation in professional membership organizations
- Participation in targeted growth activities
- Participation in service and volunteer opportunities.
